President's Letter

Dear Fellow Bobcats:

Thanks to each of you for your continuing support by sending in annual dues and especially to the many LIFE members who send additional money every year. Also, thank you to those who contribute to our Paws, Big Cats, Top Cat Clubs, Special Recognition, In Honor and In Memory categories.

Every year we lose too many great Alumni. Please take a moment to remember your friends and classmates who've passed this year. In February, we lost one of our oldest alumna, Lucile Osborn '34, who was 103 years old.

My best friend called me mid December and said "Did you see the story about you know who in the Newsletter?" I said "No. I haven't received my copy yet!" That hard copy didn't arrive until mid January. If you want to get your newsletter early, send your e-mail address to GHHSAA@hotmail.com. You can request either the email/electronic version or both the email and the paper copies. Get your Bobcat news hot off the press (or even hotter off the email link).

Our GHHS looks like a fortress, surrounded by green fencing all around. You can follow the progress at www.ghschools.org and click on the "Facilities Planning" link under the "Construction" tab. We salute the boys' basketball team for their back-to-back district championships and their dominating play in the regional semi finals. The only thing that could stop the Bobcats from winning a state championship was the Coronavirus that forced the cancellation of the rest of the season.

We dedicate this issue to our GHHS alumni veterans. No amount of thank you expressed the depth of our gratitude. This issue also contains information about Honor Flight, one of the greatest things America does to celebrate our heroes.

The GHHSAA is sponsoring an Alumni Spaghetti Dinner on Sept. 4, the night of the Alumni Night Football game. This could be the last time to see GHHS as you remember it before the renovation next year. Ticket information will be in the next issue and posted soon on our website. Advanced sales and walk-ins are welcome also. Volunteers are needed so please let us know at ghhsaa@hotmail.com.

There are many ways to stay in contact with GHHSAA:

Email us at ghhsaa@hotmail.com. Visit our website www.grandviewheightsalumni.com

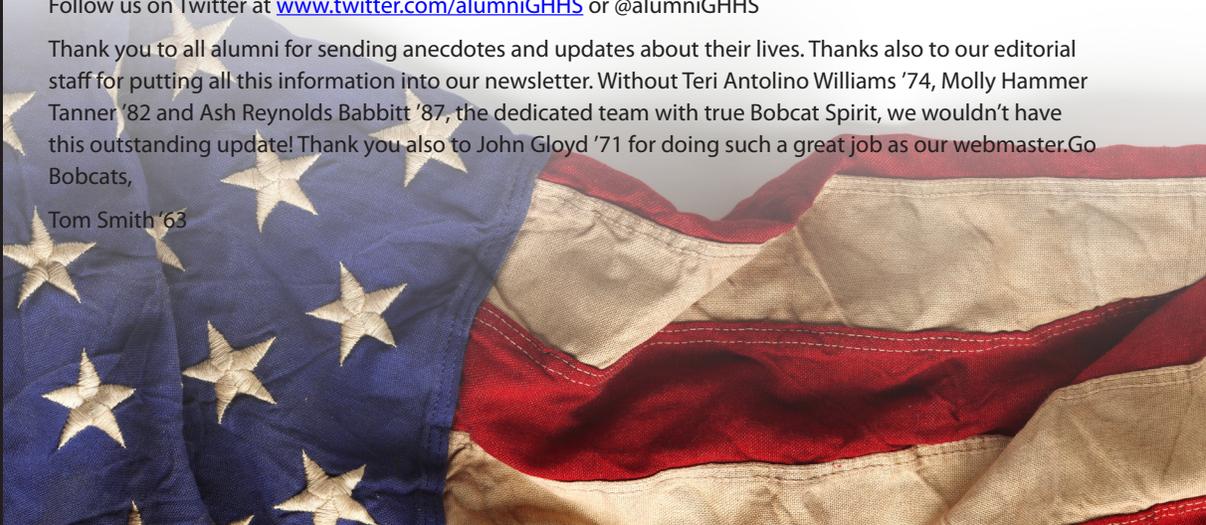

Like us on Facebook - just search "Grandview Heights High School Alumni Association"

Class pages on Facebook for specific years, including 60s Yahoo Group and 70 Yahoo Group (search for those on Facebook)

Follow us on Twitter at www.twitter.com/alumniGHHS or @alumniGHHS

Thank you to all alumni for sending anecdotes and updates about their lives. Thanks also to our editorial staff for putting all this information into our newsletter. Without Teri Antolino Williams '74, Molly Hammer Tanner '82 and Ash Reynolds Babbitt '87, the dedicated team with true Bobcat Spirit, we wouldn't have this outstanding update! Thank you also to John Gloyd '71 for doing such a great job as our webmaster. Go Bobcats,

Winter 2020 issue Corrections

Our apologies for misspelling the name of Kris Pulliam '75.

A correction may be needed in the story about Basketball Coach Ray Corbett. There is controversy regarding whether Ray kept Bobcat Chris McCabe to 41 points or 35 points. It all depends on who you ask.

Ground Breaking of the New School Building

- Alan Froman, This Week Grandview

A little rain and wind couldn't keep the shovels idle Jan. 11 during the groundbreaking ceremony for Grandview Heights Schools' facilities project. Several groups -- including students, teachers and principals; school and community leaders; representatives from companies involved in the upcoming project; and residents -- had the chance to scoop up a pile of ceremonial dirt during the event, held in the Grandview Heights High School gymnasium. The real movement of dirt began around Jan. 27, when the first phase of the project -- construction of a new grade 4-8 building began. Fencing went up at that time and the Fairview Avenue turnaround was closed as will the parking lot off Oakland Avenue and west of the Grandview Heights High School gym. The route middle school students take to the high school will be reoriented; they'll have to cross Oakland and walk on the sidewalk opposite the school before using the crosswalk to access the high school building, Culp said. Middle-school students walk down Oakland to the high school for music, foreign language and some math classes, he said. The new 4-8 building will be constructed in the space between the current Edison Intermediate/Larson Middle School and the high school. Students will continue to attend classes at Edison/Larson through the construction of the new school, which is expected to be complete by summer 2021.

We Need You!

Do you have any photos with GHHS classmates? How about a good story about one? We'd love to share them for you! Your memories and photos make our newsletter great. Send us what YOU have been up to as well. A few words or a whole story-we do reserve the right to minor editing for space.

Go Bobcats!

The 25th annual Homecoming assembly and football game were two very exciting events of the Grandview Heights High School students' year in 1954. The crown of white mums for the Queen was placed on the head of Joyce Bach, pictured here with her court. They are, left to right, Mimi Jones, Carol Sue Herd, Queen Joyce Bach, Desire Chester and Diane Cashey. Later on the field, the Bobcats met their traditional pigskin rivals, the Golden Bears of Upper Arlington, and the team was successful in defeating the Bears for the second year in a row. The festivities continued the next evening with the Homecoming Dance.

What Do Bobcats and Crickets Have in Common?

Proud '74 GHHS grad John Lorenz is also known as the Cricket Man for the Columbus and Franklin County Metro Parks. He raises 3,000 crickets every week and donates them to Metro Parks to feed animals in the living stream at the park's nature center. Kids love to take part in the feeding frenzy and watch as fish, frogs and turtles compete for their meal.

John has volunteered with Metro Parks since 1989 and has a special interest in water and stream quality. His wife Karen is also a Metro Parks volunteer. John's interest in the outdoors began in Grandview, as all great stories do, back with his Boy Scouts Troop 10 at First Community Church, where he was inspired by nature and earned nature-related merit badges.

John went on to earn a bachelor's degree in Environmental Interpretation from OSU School of Natural Resources in 1978. Much like a tree, his professional career has strong roots and different branches.

During summer before John's junior year of college, his brother Mike needed part-time help in his electronic organ repair business. The following year, Mike moved to Cincinnati and left the business to John, who continued to work on it part time while completing college. Upon graduation, John went into the organ repair business full time for six years. Organ repair requires not only knowledge of electronics, but also mechanical intuition. Organs also became computerized during that time and a new career for John was born.

He earned his Novell certification and worked for several networking companies before becoming the one-man IT department for a Columbus-based manufacturing company. This gave him weekends free to volunteer at Big Darby Creek.

As John says, "Volunteering is a way for me to use my college education. Metro Parks provides me with a place I can do this. I could not own, let alone maintain, the land that Metro Park provides to me for free."

John started volunteering at Metro Parks in 1989 where he helped park visitors and even Boy Scout troops learn more about stream study. He also volunteered with the Ohio Department of Natural Resources.

Grandview is never far away from his soul. Each Fall, Grandview second-grade students take a trip to Darby Creek and John is a regular educator that day. The kids catch insects and work with John to determine what was caught and learn the life histories of the insects.

John's "Nirvana moment" came in 2012, when the Big Darby Nature Center opened. The main attraction is a 54-foot-long raised stream with seven different water levels and stocked with animals from Big Darby Creek. Those animals needed to be fed. What is almost every animal's favorite food? Crickets. John perfected his cricket production skills and now produces 3,000 crickets a week. He donates these to the Ohio Wildlife Center, Big Darby Creek and Stratford Ecological Center, who uses them to hand feed chickens.

A nature lover through and through, John's other volunteer activities include vernal pools programs, winter hike series, seed harvesting, invasive shrub removal and resource management for parks throughout central Ohio. It's no surprise that John was named both Battelle Darby Creek Park Volunteer of the Year and Metro Parks Overall Volunteer of the Year at the annual recognition program, held in January 2020. Congratulations and thank you, John!

Jody and I recently moved from Florida to Powell, Ohio. Editor's note - Welcome Home!

The yearbook says "Selecting our dedication subject for this year was difficult because 1948 has brought a highly talented senior class: superior scholastic honors and school spirit and excellent publications and dramatic shows. The unusually fine record established by our athletic teams, however, determined that this yearbook be dedicated to Grandview's championship athletic teams."

Our football team gave us the CBL championship and the second undefeated team in Grandview's history. The basketball team succeeded in winning another CBL championship and the runner's up trophy in the central district Class A tournament to establish a record for our school. The CBL baseball championship brought Grandview's first triple crown since 1939. We beat Upper Arlington in football, basketball and baseball.

Connie Conklin Bell '52

Thank you to GHHSAA for putting me in touch with an Arlington friend, Phil Hammond. It is sad to have lost so many from my class. My memories of my friends are so positive. We had wonderful times.

Lillian Lathouse Smith '55

I'm finally learning the real estate business after 48 years of a very successful career in Cary and Raleigh, NC. My limited mobility will keep me grounded but still 100% mentally. My three children and three grandchildren live close by. My granddaughter graduated from Meredith College and two are in high school. I hope to be at the reunion.

Diane Caskey Vaughan '55

My three children, Roger, Lisa and Susan, are all married and living in Columbus, London and Dallas. My eight grandchildren are scattered. One in the Netherlands, two in London, two in New York City, two in LA and one in Colorado (an environmentalist who is spending Christmas working with her team at the bottom of the Grand Canyon). I am still living in NYC, teaching at Columbia but spending a lot of time in physical therapy and seeing doctors, feeling lucky to still be walking around doing stuff.

Here's to our old high school and to Nancy Turner and the local team who organize us for class reunions every five years.

Jean Moore White '57

Nat and I have lived in Flagstaff, Ariz., for 50 years. We enjoy the snow in winter and the beautiful summer at 7,000 feet. We keep busy with volunteering, exercise, grandchildren and music for Nat and bridge for Jean.

Craig Prosser '58

My oldest grandchild is a junior in college now. Wife Fern and I continue to enjoy retirement, northern California living, and cruising to faraway lands. We look forward to another get together with my 1958 classmates in Fall 2020.

Lou Friscoe '59

At 78, I am not fully retired yet but easing into it. My granddaughter Mary gave birth to two great grandsons and both will be chess players. I've directed more than 1200 chess tournaments and I'm still at it. Next year I plan to play again in the world handball championships in Ireland, in the over 80-year-old echelon. The 60th class reunion was great!

Patricia Palmer Miller '59

I loved our class reunion. It was so well planned. Camping trips in Michigan and Canada are coming up this year.

Cathy Penwell '61

Cathy and Ivan still live in wine country – Sonoma, CA. My brother Fritz is still in Santa Fe, New York City and Hong Kong. All is well for all of us.

Debby Schmidt Gutzwiller '64

Linda Lemon Najjoun was my best friend. We walked to and from school together almost every day.

I'm enjoying retirement and just returned from spending two months in India with family and friends. I visited the Taj Mahal, did a river cruise on the Ganges and visited many religious shrines. What a great trip.

Mark Herbert '71

I've lived in Bend, Ore., for 32 years. Since retiring in 2016, my wife Kari and I enjoy spending time at our mountain cabin in McKenzie Bridge, Ore. I always enjoy reading about Grandview alumni activities and look forward to our 50-year reunion in 2021.

For the past four years, I've worked for CoreLogic as a Principal, heading up business development in the Northeast. I was recently named to the Mortgage Bankers Association, Future Leaders program. I live in New York with my wife Aimee and our daughter Siliva.

Oldest Alumni

Lucile Osborn '34, age 103, passed away on Feb. 20, 2020. She was born Jan. 11, 1917, to the late Morse and Hollis (Boner) Osborn. A 97-year Grandview Heights resident, Lucile graduated from The Ohio State University in 1940, where she sat next to Olympic Gold Medalist Jesse Owens. She spent several years teaching grade school and more than 25 years working at Ohio State, including her most memorable position as bookkeeper for The Lantern, the campus newspaper.

Class of 1971 Friends Hit the Road

In October 2019, a group of GHHS friends took a trip with eight lifelong friends to the United Kingdom and Ireland. They had such a good time with many highlights, including Stonehenge, London, Liverpool, to Wales to find the Johns Ancestral home by coordinates on the phone GPS, Cork to see where the O'Sullivans once lived, kissing the Blarney Stone, surprising the guys by renewing our wedding vows at the Cliffs of Moher and staying in the Drummond Castle. The group traveled by plane, train, ferry and van. It was a wonderful adventure with the best of friends.

The May Queens

By Kim Houseman Murphy '74

While there is not much recorded history about Grandview's May Queens, what's there is interesting and has a touch of Hollywood magic! Pictures of past queens and their courts can be found in a search through the Highlander archives. In a few accounts, articles mention that a celebrity makes the final Queen selection. In 1963, golfer Jack Nicklaus selected the Queen and court. Also that year, the

May Queen Mary Catherine Hager '48

May Queen and court reigned over the "Little Three" track meet with the sole duty of presenting ribbons to event winners from Upper Arlington, Bexley and Grandview.

In 1948, Hollywood actress Gene Tierney chose Mary Catherine Hager as May Queen. Tierney, who was in Columbus with Players Theater, stopped into Tri-Village Photography Studio to visit the owner, who had once lived next door to her in LA. She volunteered to select the 1948 Grandview Heights High School May Queen from a group of candidate photos. Here she holds the photo of her Queen selection, Mary Catherine Hager.

The other candidates, named to that year's court, were Diana Gosner, Nadys Lewis, Rita Lee and Barbara Stevens.

Alumni Q&A: Art in Grandview

Curt Sneary '82

Q: When did you know that you had artistic talent?

Curt: My junior or senior year at GHHS. Art teacher Lee Eckleberry noticed my talent and offered me a scholarship to the Columbus College of Art and Design (CCAD). My first experience with getting hooked on painting was with one of my first large acrylic paintings in Doc Eckleberry's class; it was of a waterfall. I remember mixing a tiny bit of black paint with another color and becoming amazed at how powerful the black paint was (a little going a long way). It's strange to think that such a small thing would pull you in.

Q: Have you stayed in touch with Lee Eckleberry?

Curt: Yes. We connected via Facebook this past summer and had some long conversations on the phone. It was important for me to let him know how grateful I was to him. We are in the process of trading paintings. I believe my interest in landscape and portraiture paintings may have been from his influence. He is a true genius, I am blessed to have been under his "mentor wing" and to still have his support to this day.

Q: Did you end up going to CCAD?

Curt: Yes, I graduated with a BFA in Advertising Design. I always dreamed of being like Darren on Bewitched and work in advertising agencies and come up with campaigns. I ended up less like Darren and more like Van Gogh. I worked in some agencies in Columbus and Atlanta and realized this wasn't what I wanted to do the rest of my life. Like Van Gogh, I don't deal with stress well. I haven't cut off my ear yet, but have come close.

Q: What is a typical day like in Curt Sneary's world?

Curt: If I wake up not screaming from a nightmare then I'm off to a good start. I paint in my studio in the very early morning and then walk my dog. I like home improvements so am always tinkering around the house. I recently bought a foreclosure in Allentown, Penn., to be closer to NYC for my art and for an investment. I spend part of my day marketing my art and messing about on social media. I play a little guitar and read then wind down with a movie.

Q: How long does one of your paintings take?

Curt: A lifetime! Joking, but true in the sense that all of a person's knowledge goes into their current creation/project. The amount of time depends on what kind of painting. I can do an abstract in a few hours and a large movie painting can take up to a month.

Q: Your movie paintings have words in them, can you elaborate?

Curt: The words are as important as the image. I use words verbatim from a movie to pay homage to the writer. My movie paintings are very personal, sometimes I will remember a scene from a movie just from the words. This genre of painting (Neo-Pop) still speaks a thousand words because the words in the painting can be interpreted in many different ways.

Q: You mentioned you wanted to be close to NYC for your art. How is that going?

Curt: Slow. My house took more time than I anticipated to just get up-and-running. I have made some inquiries that haven't come to fruition yet; I have a mountain of work ahead of me. An artist can't/shouldn't just walk into a gallery and ask to be represented; it takes time to understand the market and the "art scene."

Q: Have you been in art galleries before?

Curt: Yes, in Atlanta and Florida. I started taking painting more seriously late in life and very serious just recently. In NYC's eye, I am an "emerging artist."

Q: What advice would you give to a person wanting to be an artist?

Curt: Don't do it for the money or glamour. There is little money and no glamour. Accolades are nice; but, you can receive accolades in any occupation. I would tell them to be in the mindset to do it for the world, for other people. I have found that this is the best path for your inner-self. If you are spiritual, then use your gift to please the heavens.

Q: If one would like to inquire about your art how would they contact you?

Curt: My website would be a good start. www.curtsnearyart.com. I would like to thank everyone who has supported the arts in their lifetime.

Peace and love friends, Curt

Connie J. Clark Mann '67

A starter on the varsity field hockey and basketball teams for three years, Connie played center forward for field hockey and was responsible for many goals. As a "roving" forward for the Bobcat basketball team, she served as point guard and shooter. She was a 750-point letter winner in the Girls' Athletic Association, served as vice president her senior year and also received a Girls' Athletic Association scholarship.

Connie attended Bowling Green State University, where she started on both the intercollegiate field hockey and basketball teams. She was the point guard for BGSU's basketball team during the first-ever Ohio Intercollegiate Women's Basketball tournament in 1971. Delta Psi Kappa also recognized her for outstanding contributions to health physical education and the recreation department at BGSU.

Connie earned a master's degree from Miami University in Guidance and Counseling and served 27 years as a counselor and teacher in elementary through college levels. During that tenure, she also coached swimming, tennis (three undefeated seasons), volleyball (Michigan state championship game), basketball, and track (individual state qualifiers). Post-college, Connie started playing competitive tennis in 1986. She and her teammates won the USTA Women's doubles regional tennis tournament in 1989.

Connie's Grandview family includes sisters Shelley (1970) and Carol (1979), as well as nephews Phil (1998) and Todd (2000) Lovegrove, who are both also members of the GHHS Sports Hall of Fame.

Katie Speakman '99

Katie was a three-sport GHHS athlete in softball, soccer, and basketball, earning 11 varsity letters. As a four-year letter winner and two-time captain at first base for the Bobcat softball team, Katie was named second-team All Buckeye Athletic conference (BAC) as a freshman, and first-team her sophomore, junior, and senior years. Katie was named second-team All-District her sophomore year, and first-team All-District her junior and senior years. She was a three-time MVP, and as a junior, became the first GHHS player to earn an All-State honor (2nd team) in softball. In 1999, Katie was an integral part of the first BAC championship team in school history. As a Bobcat soccer team member, Katie was a four-year letter winner and team captain her senior year. She was named first-team All-Independent League her junior and senior years. She was named Offensive MVP her junior year, and was part of the 1998 league championship team.

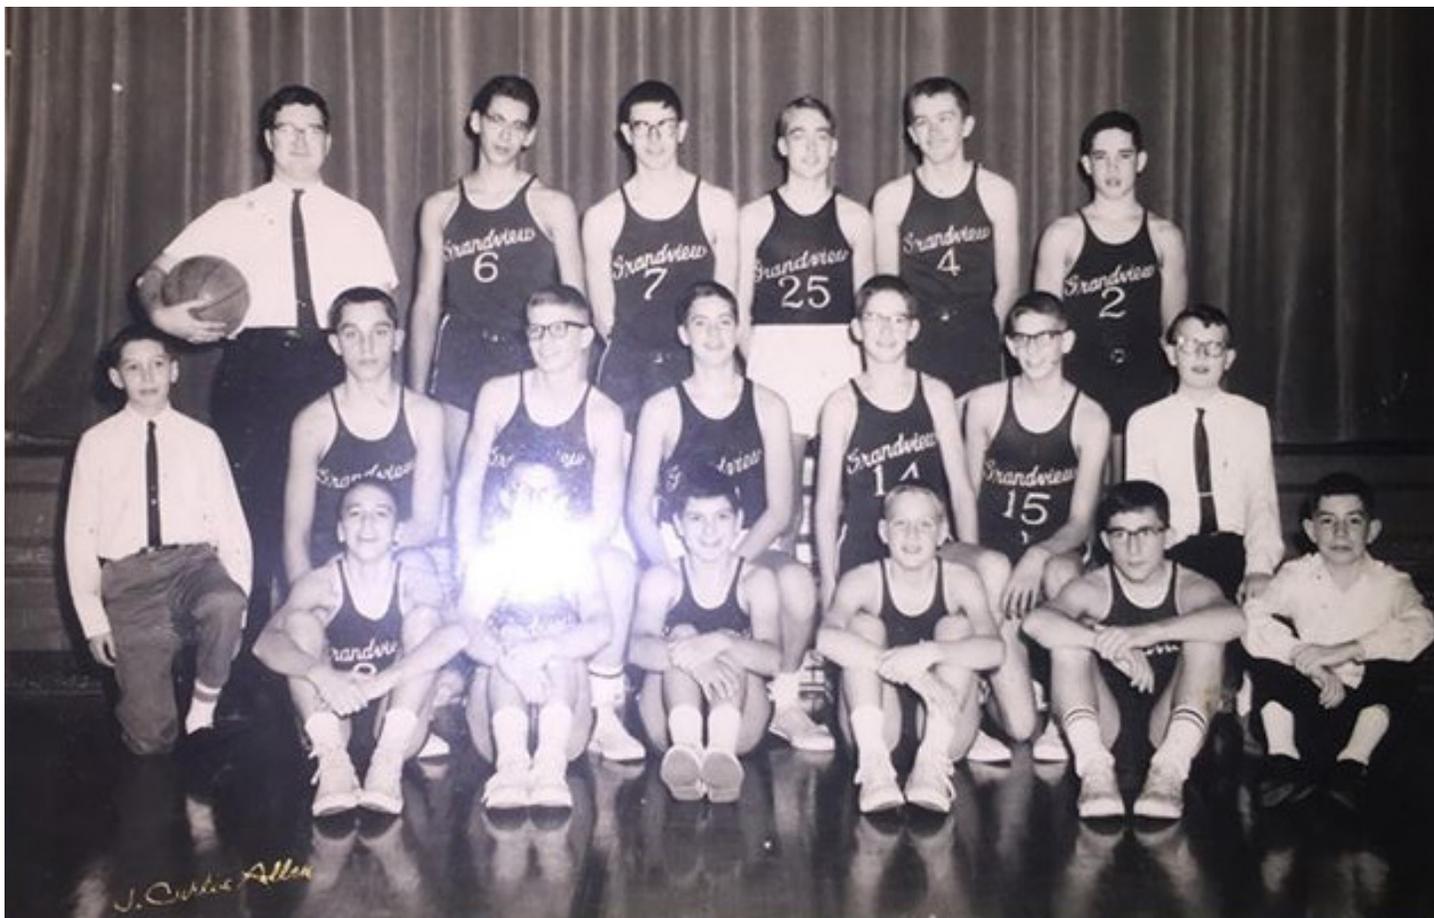

As a guard for the basketball Bobcats, Katie was a three-year letter winner and senior captain. Named second-team All-BAC her senior year, Katie was a part of the 1998 and 1999 BAC championship teams.

After high school, she graduated from Denison University with a bachelor's degree in Spanish and played for the Denison Big Red softball team, earning three conference championships and qualifying for the NCAA tournament three consecutive years. Katie is the daughter of Mike and Vicki Speakman (both '71) and brother Travis is a 2001 GHHS graduate.

Leaving a Legacy

Leaving a Bobcat Legacy

Many GHHS graduates, upon reaching success in their career and lives, want to recognize the positive influence of their high school experience. Through the GHHS Alumni Association, alumni and friends can donate to support school activities and scholarships for graduating seniors.

Alumni can purchase lifetime or annual GHHSAA memberships or give donations in recognition or memory of classmates. One category of giving recognizes those contributing a significant amount. A plaque in the front hall of the high school lists those who have donated at least $1,000. Current honorees are listed below. If you'd like to make a contribution, the Alumni Association and the school would gladly add your name to the plaque.

Legacy Society

The Legacy Society was established by the GHHSAA Board as a means for people to leave a legacy and donate generously to the GHHSAA, adding to the scholarship fund. The type of gift can be made by a bequest in a will or living trust, naming the GHHSAA as a beneficiary of an IRA or life insurance policy, or in a charitable trust. If it is desired to have scholarships awarded immediately, then a cash endowment is possible. A commitment of $20,000 is required for a named scholarship. Our deepest thanks to our current Legacy Society members:

Grandview during WWII

Written by Bob "Nero" McNabb '45

Most young men who attended Grandview Heights High School during the "War Years" expected to eventually serve in the military. More than 500 names of Grandview military servicemen were posted on the outdoor "honor roll" erected in a park adjacent to the public library. Homes of servicemen were marked by placards in the window with Blue Stars for servicemen and Gold Stars for deceased servicemen. There was very strong Grandview community pride for "our boys" in uniform.

As the war progressed, we learned the names of servicemen as the sons, brothers and sweethearts of our neighbors and schoolmates. When a student was called to the principal's office, they might learn of a military casualty. It sent a chill throughout the school. Pat Short '42, president of his graduating class and a good football and basketball player, was killed in action in late 1944. Jean Lindsay, brother of (Rook) Bobby Lindsey and Helen Lindsey Bonney, was killed in March 1945. Many fellow Rooks from the 1942-45 years served in the military and saw action.

Frank "Dude" Higgs '26, an early Rook, came to a special school assembly in 1944. "Dude" went to China to train pilots early in the war. He was the inspiration for Milton Caniff's popular "Steve Canyon" cartoon strip. Dude Hennick was our "Dude" Higgs. During the assembly, we were treated to a fascinating talk about his military adventures. Tragically, "Dude" was killed in 1945 while piloting an aircraft in the China Theater.

Sometimes, aircraft piloted by GHHS alums "buzzed" the high school. We would hear the approaching aircraft and look to see an aircraft skimming the football field and headed straight for school. The sweetheart of one of the military pilots lived on the street next to mine. She'd sometimes get a "notice" from her boyfriend in the form of a small wrench tied to a silk scarf thrown from the plane. By buzzing the neighborhood, all of the residents knew what was happening and would watch. I never heard a word of criticism regarding these antics. There was a special regard towards our military and those young men were always treated as heroes.

When I entered the Navy, three GHHS classmates and six pals from Arlington stayed together through boot camp. I enlisted in April 1945, following the deaths of President Franklin Roosevelt and war correspondent Ernie Pyle. The shock of their deaths persuaded my father to sign his approval because I had not reached my 18th birthday. Within three months of leaving Grandview, the Pacific War was over. It was our good fortune that we weren't killed or injured in action.

I treasured my Grandview years, as the community was very nurturing and, God knows, our teachers were as good as they come. Police Chief Bob Livingston dispatched problems quickly and most problems never made for big news. As a juvenile, I had a nose for mischief. One year, Chief Livingston dropped by our home and suggested to my mom I "ride along" with him for the next few evenings. During one ridealong, he arrested an intoxicated man and took him to the basement jail. The man started raising a ruckus, slapping his metal drinking cup along the cell bars. When we went downstairs to investigate, the man had torn his cup handle loose, broke the ceiling light bulb, used the cup handle to short the electricity and then fell asleep. As a result, this 14-year-old son never caused another moment of worry for Chief Livingston (or my mom). Chief Livingston is one of those people who not only made it safe to live in Grandview; he was a friend to many young men who were disposed to mischief.

Everybody seems to have a favorite high school teacher in those days. Dorcus Truckmiller was our English and Speech teacher and drama coach for school plays. One early morning, I found it necessary to empty Miss Truckmiller's wooden trash barrel from her home as I needed the barrel staves for a Rook meeting. Very old Rooks will recall that it was the duty of each Skunk pledge to gather barrel staves from which to fashion paddles for the "active" Rooks to whomp Skunks. Miss Truckmiller spotted me and told Principal Blauser what I had done. I was called to his office later that morning. Miss Truck-miller, Principal Blausen and I made a solemn pact that morning, which I now reveal as one of the best lessons that I've ever learned in life. Mr. Blausen asked me to tell Miss Truckmiller the truth about what I'd done. I told the truth and Miss Truckmiller's stern look turned into a lovely smile. I walked out of that office with justice being handled very gently. I was a "free man" but it did leave a positive mark on me. News of my transgression did, however, reach the Rooks and I got several whacks with Miss Truckmiller's wooden staves at the next meeting, so fair justice was finally dispatched.

Miss Truckmiller and all our teachers marked Grandview as different from other schools. The community itself was a solid middle class area. There were large church memberships throughout. When our class held its last reunion, the current GHHS principal addressed us and commented how the community continued to draw families who wanted their children to attend Grandview. That's so comforting to an old alum. I would still be happy to call Grandview home.

Why does the Brotherhood of Rooks continue to have substance for old guys like me? It's not about membership exclusivity. There was, of course, our unique ownership of that fraternity house. We had some great after-game dances. We formed a tight little community within our tight little Grandview community. For me, the Brotherhood of Rooks was a beacon for things I aspired to. It made me want to be a better person.

Ready? Set? Reunite!

Class of 1955's 65th Reunion

The second verse of our school song reads "There are joys that will long be remembered and friendships that will never die. So, here's a cheer for our old high school, our dear old high school, our Grandview High."

Once again, it's time for schoolmates to assemble. Our 65th class reunion will be held Oct. 2-4, 2020. Details have yet to be planned but the dinner will be Oct. 3 and brunch on Oct. 4 at the hotel. We are excited to see everyone. Stay healthy! Classmates Reunited

The Class of '62 celebrated their 75th birthday together on a beautiful fall day at the home of John and Gayle (Forster) Baron Graham. Classmates traveled from as far away as Florida, Illinois, Utah and Indiana to be a part of the celebration. Everyone had fun seeing and visiting with old friends.

Lunch was catered by the Millstone Restaurant and dessert, in the form of a delicious birthday cake was baked by classmate Corinne Dryer Reilly. After lunch, Dave and Jeannie Walton quizzed the group on facts about "old Grandview." The group sang our Alma Mater, Grandview fight song, and "Our Old High School." Each classmate shared high school stories and gave updates on their current news. Party planning for the 60th reunion (summer of 2022) will soon be underway.

Contributing to the GHHSAA

You are the GHHSAA. Without membership support, the GHHSAA would not and could not exist. We graciously thank you for your continued generosity. Here is a breakdown of GHHSAA funding categories. All Friends of the GHHSAA are mentioned in the newsletter published nearest the time after their contribution is received. Support the GHHSAA today! Thank you!

ANNUAL DUES: Every fall, we mail an Annual Membership Request of $30. This goes to all alumni and it is our hope that each alum contributes this amount each year. This funding is the "bread and butter" of our budget and is extremely important. Please watch for your envelope this fall.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP: A Lifetime membership is $300. Lifetime members still receive the annual dues request in case they want to donate additional funds. We publish the names of all LIFE Members once every 24 months. A list of LIFE Members is available online at www.grand-viewheightsalumni.com.

PAWS CLUB: Contribution of $50 - $99

BIG CATS CLUB: Contribution of $100 - $499

TOP CATS CLUB: Contribution of $500 - $999

SPECIAL RECOGNITION: Contribution of $1,000+

IN HONOR OF: Contribution of any amount in honor of a classmate, teacher, friend. Both the donor and the honoree are mentioned in the newsletter.

IN MEMORY OF: Contribution of any amount in memory of deceased classmate, teacher, friend. Both the donor and the deceased are mentioned in the newsletter.

LEGACY SOCIETY: Membership in the GHHS Legacy Society requires a base contribution of $20,000 or more. The funding establishes an annual scholarship, of at least 5% of the deposited amount, in the contributor's name or in honor of someone of their choosing. All Legacy Society contributors will be listed in every newsletter issue and are listed on the web site.

We take our fiduciary responsibility seriously. You can see the good work your funding accomplishes including this newsletter, alumni events, the website, support of current student activities, improvements and supplies not available in the regular budget (Robotics, Art, Band, special requests, etc.), and scholarships, scholarships and more scholarships. Your support ensures we stay connected, and together we help continue the legacy that makes us all proud to be a Bobcat.

Make all checks payable to GHHSAA and mail to PO Box 12116 Columbus, OH 43212. Funds are managed by The Columbus Foundation.

Editor's note: We send dues request letters to all alumni, just as we also send the newsletter. We hope you'll give when you can. Donations and annual dues newsletter subscriptions are much appreciated. We couldn't do all we do without you. Thank you for your continued and generous support.

Alumni Spaghetti Dinner

Kick off Bobcat Alumni Weekend with a tour of GHHS and then head to the cafeteria for a spaghetti dinner. This is the last year the high school will look as you might remember, with extensive renovations planned for the coming year.

A GHHS Open House begins at 4 pm on Friday, Sept. 4, and our Alumni Spaghetti Dinner will be held from 5 to 7 p.m. You'll have your choice of eating in the cafeteria or purchasing a carryout meal.

Watch for more details in the next issue.
